

Melling Awarded NPW's 2024 Engine and Performance Vendor of the Year!

National Auto Parts Warehouse (NPW) held their annual Vendor Appreciation Dinner and Customer award on February 1, 2025. Melling was awarded NPW's 2024 Engine and Performance Vendor of the Year. Laura Short, VP of Aftermarket Sales, and Doug Smith, Eastern Regional Sales Manager accepted the honor on behalf of the Melling team.

"I am extremely proud of the Melling team and their hard work this past year to achieve such success with NPW. We value NPW as a customer and look forward to continued years of a successful partnership," stated Mark Melling, President and CEO of Melling Engine Parts. "Melling strives to offer quality parts produced by passionate people, and this honor proves our success."

Chris Pacey, NPW President and CEO commented, "Melling's unwavering commitment to engine and performance excellence has made them a key channel partner for NPW. We're proud to honor them as our Engine and Performance Vendor of the Year and look forward to continued success together, delivering top-tier solutions to our customers and the engine-building community."

